CITIZENS PROTEST NEW BUS ROUTING

Albany citizens are aroused over proposal made by the Key System to furnish bus transportation from San Pablo Avenue for an approximate two-block square, but fearing no solution to hill residents.

The Key System proposal was made to City Attorney George Gavrilovich who submitted it to the City Council this week. Gav-rilovich had been authorized to meet with Key System officials following presentation of a petition by residents west of San Pablo Avenue who demanded transportation in the hill area.

Route proposed by Key System could provide transportation on Buchanan Street, two blocks west of Jackson Street, one block north to Solano Avenue, and thence back to San Pablo Avenue.

On motion of Councilman Raymond F. Cleary the City Council voted to ask officials of the transportation line to set a date for public discussion of west of San Pablo Avenue transportation problems.
Although, Cleary said, the proposal constituted an improvement over former attitudes of the company, it offered no answer to the petition signed by hill area residents.

Mrs. Jewell Dubroff, 710 Solano Avenue, one of the original petitioners, declared the "proposition is ridiculous. Jackson Street is only two short blocks from San Pablo and none of these residents even needs transportation. We should

Mothers Raising Fund for Scouts

Tickets are on sale this week for a prize affair sponsored by the Scout Mothers of Troop 12, Boy Scouts of America. Proceeds will be given to the boys for the fund they are accumulating for the purchase of a truck to be used for their trips and activities.

A selection of prizes is on display at the "Cougar Shop" 1365 Solano Ave. The awards will be made after the troop meeting Thursday evening, December 5, at Marin School.

simply insist that the Key System agree to our original request."

Mrs. Elizabeth Bechtel, 940 Adams Street, strongly supported Mrs.
Dubroff and "moved" from the floor that the public be notified when a discussion date with Key System officials is set.

City Attorney Gavrilovich was instructed to contact the transportation company a second time on the matter.

C. of C. Sponsors Ad Campaign to Boost Albany

Advertising Albany in behalf of the business men who are the heaviest taxpayers is being sponsored by the officers of the Albany Chamber of Commerce. Assisting in this comprehensive program are the members of the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County.

Thomas E. Caldecott, chairman of the board, whose district includes the cities of Albany and Berkeley, is of the opinion that advertising pays and that Albany will profit through the program instituted by the Albany Chamber of Commerce.

Calling attention to the fact that Albany merchants carry a complete and outstanding stock of merchandise in all lines, the ad in today's Times asks Albany buyers to first consider Albany merchants. Money spent at home helps the community.

Albany's advertising committee representing the Chamber of Commerce includes Attorney Cecil N.
Lavers, Joe Villa, Mrs. Beatrice Raymond and General Manager Whitmore of the Chamber.

Stock Up Now for Holiday Season

Michael's Cut Rate Liquor Store, 1497 Solano at Curtis, suggests to Albany patrons that they stock up now for the holidays. This store announces that there will be no rise in prices on present stock and there is no limit.

Motorists are cautioned to be certain the outside lane of traffic is clear before pulling out from the curb into moving traffic.

Nominations Made For C.C. Directors

Fourteen members of the Albany Chamber of Commerce have been nominated for the office of Director for the coming year. On written request of 10 members, additional nominations may be made. The election will be held December 10.

Those selected by the nominating committee include: Oliver Nelson, Ted Williams, Cecil Lavers, Ed.
Haran, George Loos, W. J. Bowman, Walter Teasdale, H. W. Simmons, Charles C. Moore, Clifford Lockhart, Harold Rohr, Mrs. Beatrice Raymond, George Hein and Walter Kees.

Turkey Prizes At Whist Party

The Maccabees of Albany Tent 124 and Hive 133 invite the public to join in a whist party to be held on Thursday night, November 21, at their lodge building at Kains and Marin Ave., Albany.

A 10-lb. turkey will be given away for every three tables, and the turkeys will be on hand at Villa's Market in Albany for delivery. This is not a turkey order but a real turkey, with score cards at 75 cents. This is open to the public with play to start at 8:30 p.m.

Acacia to Sponsor DeMolay Chapter

At its regular meeting Friday, November 22, plans will be made for organizing an Albany Chapter of DeMolay. The entertainment committee has an interesting program and will top the evening with a spaghetti feed by Frank Libilla and Geo. Gerlack.

BOOSTERS' FETE BIG SUCCESS

Albany Boosters' Parade, Football Game and Dance was declared a grand success by co-chairmen Kay Petry and W. J. Bowman.
Bowman added that "we are, indeed, grateful to the Albany business and professional men and women who made this grand celebration possible.

The Boosters reported there were more than one hundred parade entries, and that more than 3,000 spectators witnessed the annual St.
Mary's-Albany football game for the inter-city championship. Some 800 teen-agers crowded into the high school gymnasium for the victory hop and the reopening of the Albany Recreation Department Teen-Age Center.

Mayor Graeber and other officials stated that the Albany Boosters should be congratulated for their interest in youth and the outstanding program that they provided.
Mayor Graeber added that the student bodies of Albany High and St. Mary's, Albany Recreation Department and the school faculties should be commended for their efforts in connection with the two-day celebration.

During the intermission at Saturday night's victory hop, St.
Mary's and Albany High Schools presented entertainment, and Mrs.
Kay Petry awarded the championship trophy donated by the publisher of the Albany Times, Miss Ila Wilson. Entertainers participating were Jack Muir, representing St. Mary's, and Barbara Moore

Teen-Age Center Reopens With Record Crowd

The Albany Recreation Department Teen-Age Center reopened Saturday night, November 9, with some 800 in attendance at the Albany High School Gymnasium.

The Teen-Age Center will operate each Saturday night from 7 to 11 p.m. throughout the winter season with dancing, games and many special events.

The Center is restricted to teenagers residing in the city limits of Albany and admittance will be by student body card or special pass issued at the Albany Recreation Department, 850 Masonic Avenue, Albany.

Police, Firemen in First Aid Class

Twenty-two policemen and firemen registered for the standard first-aid course, sponsored by the Berkeley-Albany chapter of the American Red Cross, taught by Melvin Hickman, at the Albany fire-house on Monday and Friday evenings.

This is the first in a series of in-service training courses which the police department is making available to its personnel. These courses are being taught by Chief S. C.
Williams, Sgt. Frank Davis, Sgt.
A. W. Smith, Sgt. W. A. Hyde, and Officers Vernon Freeman, Robert L. Turley, James McLeod and Jerry W. Neuhauser, all of whom have had advanced training in outside schools on the subjects they will teach.

and Angelo Rodriguez, Albany High School.

The Albany Boosters were organized for the purpose of promoting youth activities in the City of Albany and are sponsored by all persons who contribute to the Booster Fund.

DADS MEET YMI CLUB FOR TITLE

The Albany Marin Dads and the El Cerrito Y.M.I. No. 96 will meet Sunday morning, November 17, at 10 a.m. for the City Softball Championship at Memorial Park.

The Marin Dads are the defending champions, having won the spring league and will meet a tough team in the El Cerrito Y.M.I.
Both clubs are credited with five wins and one loss for a tie in the final standings of the Albany Recreation Department's Fall Softball League.

Manager Frederickson of the Dads Club stated that it will be a tough game and he urges all the Marin Dads and their families to come out and root their team to victory.

William McClain, pilot of the El Cerrito Y.M.I., stated his boys are confident that they can take the trophy and will put up a real battle, and may the best team win.

Tickets on Sale For P.-T.A. Bazaar

The results of the recent membership drive by Cornell P.-T.A. place Mervyn Weiner, Low 6th, in the lead with 100 percent for the north building and Mrs. Ruth Soule, High 1st with 96 percent in the south building.

Mrs. Wallace Mardilla, president of the unit, announced that tickets are now on sale for the door prizes to be given at the bazaar on December 6. First prize will be a 15-pound turkey and there will be many other valuable prizes such as nylons, groceries, etc.

Anyone wishing to enter the hobby show on that night may obtain information from Mrs. Leslie Burman, L.A. 5-2229.

NO ONE NEED WORRY ABOUT FUNERAL BILLS

Everyone should have a plan prepared for all the major eventualities of life.

There is a Plan that everyone should look into. It provides a method of setting down in advance just what funeral arrangements shall be carried out. It also provides immediate cash to cover funeral costs. This means that those who remain will not be burdened with the ordeal of arrangements at the time of sorrow, and it keeps savings and insurance funds intact.

In the interest of better service, we will be pleased to tell you how you may obtain this protection. For information
